

The Marion I. & Henry J. Knott Foundation
Loan Application

The Knott Foundation Cash Flow Loan Program makes short-term (30 – 180 days + a maximum 2% fee) cash flow loans from $10,000 to $25,000 (up to $30,000 for past Knott Foundation grantees) against delayed receivables such as government, foundation or corporate grants and contracts. Loans are made on a first-come, first-served basis from a revolving pool of $100,000.

Please review the Knott Foundation Cash Flow Loan Program guidelines prior to completing this loan application.

I. Background Information

A. Purpose of Organization and Clients/Audience Served:

B. Describe why the cash flow loan is required and how the funds will be used:

C. Describe if this is a one-time request or is it an ongoing issue. If ongoing, are there plans for an operating reserve or endowment to cover future shortfalls?

Loans are interest-free but carry a two percent (2%) service charge when the loan is made. If the loan is repaid in full within 90 days, one half of the service charge is refunded. For loans repaid within 45 days, an additional one quarter of the service charge is refunded. Loan recipients who have honored the terms of the loan agreement may return to the loan fund for additional loans no sooner than one year.

Timely repayment is critical to the success of the Cash Flow Loan Program so that the loan pool can be constantly revolving, serving as many nonprofits as possible.

It is not appropriate to apply for a cash flow loan:

- Against a contract that has been or is at serious risk of being defunded; or
- If your organization is in financial crisis and your actual need is for emergency operating funds that cannot be repaid.
